Background of sites:

1. Taikoo Hui (太古汇) is a prestigious composite commercial development of Swire Properties Ltd. located at the heart of Tianhe in Guangzhou. The site area is roughly 45,000 m² and the total construction floor area is around 450,000 m². The development comprises basically 4 levels of basement, 4 levels of podium with 4 towers built on top. The Retail portion is situated in the 2 upper levels of basement and the podium. On top of the podium, there are four towers including 1 office tower, 1 hotel, 1 office and hotel complex and a cultural centre. Target completion of the project is in 2010. At present, bulk basement excavation and lateral support works are being carried out at site.
2. Zhujiang Xincheng West Tower (广州珠江新城西塔) is a mixed commercial development of 广州越秀城建国际金融中心有限公司 consisting of office, hotel and retail. The total construction floor area is about 450,000 m². The main tower is of 103 storey and 432 m high. Target completion of the project is end 2009.
3. Guangzhou New TV Tower (广州新电视塔) is developed by 广州新电视塔建设有限公司. The site area is 176,000 m² and the total construction floor area is 99,946 m². The total height of the building is 610 m (454 m for Main Tower plus 156 m transmission rod) which will be the tallest tower of its kind in the world when completed. Target completion of the project is September 2009.
